In Re: Conservatorship of

Petition to Sell Real Property

_____,

Protected Person

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF THE DISTRICT COURT:

Your petitioner, the conservator herein, respectfully represents that the personal property herein is insufficient to pay the protected person's debts and other charges against the protected person's estate; that to provide for the support, maintenance, and education of the protected person, and/or support for the protected person's spouse or children, and because it is for the best interest of the protected person, it is necessary and expedient to sell the following described real estate:

(Reasons for selling must be set forth below.) _____

_____.

Homestead: Being in the County of _____, State of Minnesota:
Legally described as _____;
_____;

Other Real Estate: Being in the County of _____, State of Minnesota:
Legally described as _____;

WHEREFORE, your petitioner requests that such real estate be ordered sold according to law.

FURTHER, under penalties for perjury for deliberate falsification therein, I declare or affirm that I have read the foregoing petition and to the best of my knowledge or information, its representations are true, correct and complete.
